

U.S. Customs and Border Protection

CBP Client | Who do we serve?

- Federal Agency: U.S. Department of Homeland Security
 - Website: <http://www.dhs.gov>
 - Vision: To secure the nation from the many threats we face. This requires the dedication of more than 240,000 employees in jobs that range from aviation and border security to emergency response, from cybersecurity analyst to chemical facility inspector. Our duties are wide-ranging, but our goal is clear - keep America safe.
- U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP)
 - CBP is the DHS agency responsible for securing the borders of the United States while facilitating the flow of legitimate trade and travel.
 - The nation's largest law enforcement organization, CBP is one of DHS's largest and most complex components, with a priority mission of keeping terrorists and their weapons out of the U.S. It also has a responsibility for securing and facilitating trade and travel while enforcing hundreds of U.S. regulations, including immigration and drug laws.
 - CBO protects more than 6,900 miles of land borders and 95,000 miles of tidal shoreline. CBP conduct operations at 329 ports of entry and 139 Border Patrol stations.
